Sir:

This communication is in response to the Advisory Office Action mailed June 29, 2005. In the Advisory Action the Examiner stated that the proposed amendment would not be entered because it raised new issues that would require further consideration and/or search and specifically states that the claims had been amended which requires a new search.

Prior to the 1 June 2005 amendment, claims 1 – 14 and 16 – 22 were pending. The 1 June 2005 proposed cancellation of claims 3, 5, and 9 and proposed amendment of claims 1, 4, 6, and 7. Independent claims 11, 16, and 22 and their respective dependent claims were not amended. Dependent claims 2, 4, and 6 that depend from claim 1 were not amended and dependent claims 8 and 10 that depend from claim 7 were not amended.

The amendment to independent claim 1 incorporated the subject matter from cancelled claims 3 and 5 into claim 1. No new subject was included. The amendment to dependent claims 4
